ONTARIO

SCHOOL YEAR AND HOLIDAYS
Sept. 3rd, 1940, to June 27th, 1941

1. The following changes in the marking of the register should be carefully noted:

   (1) Schools that did not open until after September 3rd because pupils were engaged in farm help may take credit for full attendance as from September 3rd.

   (2) Pupils absent from school during September, October, May or June, on a School Children's Employment certificate, a Home Permit or an Employment certificate as issued by the Attendance Officer, may be credited with attendance for those periods.

   (3) Pupils absent during September for home help on farms, without a permit from an Attendance Officer, may be credited with attendance during that month, but after October 1st certificates should be procured to get credit for attendance.

   (4) Pupils who are absent temporarily for war work may be given credit for attendance, but if the Employment certificate or Home Permit issued by the Attendance Officer completes the school life of the pupil, then his name will be automatically removed from the roll.

   (5) In order to get the above credits, children shall be 12 years or more of age.
